

Photo: Tonya hands out candy canes to onlookers at the Clackamas Town Center mall skating rink in December 1994. Earlier, she took to the ice to skate dressed as Mrs. Santa Claus in a special performance for her loyal fans who had stood by her during the previous months. And, as you can see, there were still many of them!

It's been 20 years since Tonya took to the ice one winter's day, but 'twas "reindeer games", not Olympic Games that were what inspired this play.

She was dressed as Mrs. Santa Claus, not one of Santa's elfies, and everyone took photos of our Tonya, not just selfies.

It was Tonya saying "thank you", at a Portland shopping mall, by skating for her loyal fans, who stood by her through it all.
